48 HOURS INVESTIGATES

01/03/03      "Death In The Desert"- focuses on programs designed to help young people with disciplinary problems, including (1) "Dead End" - the investigation of the death -- from dehydration due to heat exposure and complications of near drowning -- of 14-year-old Anthony Haynes who was enrolled in America's Buffalo Soldiers Reenactors, a military-style boot camp in Buckeye, Arizona. Charles Franklin Long II, a self-proclaimed Colonel who founded and runs the boot camp, was arrested and charged with child abuse, aggravated assault and second-degree murder. He is awaiting trial. Titles within this segment include: "Breaking Point"; "Colonel's Orders"; "Chain of Command". (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Randy Martin) (2) "Last Chance" - an innovative and intense alternative treatment program for troubled teenagers called MST (Multi-Systemic Therapy) which assigns a counselor to the household not only to work with the teenager, but also every influence in his or her life -- neighbors, teachers, friends and especially parents. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Patti Aronofsky (OAD: 06/28/02)

01/03/03      "The Colonel's Wife"- Ret. Col. George Maracek, a 69-year-old former Green Beret who served in Korea and Vietnam, has been charged with the 1991 murder of his Thai wife Viparet. The Czech-born Maracek, a concentration camp survivor who fled Europe after World War II, maintains that he is innocent. Having been brought to trial twice, Maracek won the right to a new trial on appeal. Despite his contention that the state was trying to use his military career against him and that the police used him as a scapegoat to cover a botched investigation, a jury found him guilty and he faces a 30-year prison sentence. Segments include: "American Hero"; "Colonel of Truth"; "Clues"; "Body of Evidence"; "I Spy"; "End Game". (C: Susan Spencer - P: Josh Yager) (OAD: 12/07/00)

- 01/08/03      "Kids For Sale"- focuses on the exploitation of children on the Internet, including: (1) "Risky Business" - On the Internet, for a fee, anyone can view teens and pre-teens posing provocatively in revealing clothes. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Paul Ryan) (2) "Star Search" - a report on a group of Palm Beach County, FLA teens who made a porno movie. Includes an interview with Lanna Belohlavek, assistant Florida state attorney who filed felony charges against the four boys and one girl who were involved. (C: Bill Lagattuta - P: Peter Doyle) (3) "Street Stories" - a report on young girls and prostitution, including an interview with Norma Hotalling, director of SAGE, a San Francisco group that helps girls get out of prostitution. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Chuck Stevenson) ("Kids For Sale" Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr.)
- 01/10/03      "Searching For Elizabeth" - report on the ongoing investigation of the kidnapping, last June, of 14-year-old Elizabeth Smart from her Salt Lake City home, focusing on new information that casts a fresh light on the abduction. Includes interviews with 10-year-old Mary Katherine Smart, the only eyewitness to the crime; Elizabeth's four other siblings; her parents, Ed and Lois Smart; Salt Lake City Police investigator Commander Cory Lyman; the Smarts' neighbor, Suann Adams; Angela Ricci, whose late husband Richard was the principal suspect in the case; and Neth Moul, an auto mechanic who shared critical information on the case. The FBI and Salt Lake City officials have announced that the amount of the award money being offered in the Elizabeth Smart case has been raised to $45,000. Segments include: "Taken"; "So Brave"; "Secrets In The Hills"; "Fresh Tracks"; "Dear Elizabeth" (C: Jane Clayson - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Nancy Kramer)
- 01/15/03      "Invitation To A Murder"- Police called Mark Winger a hero on Aug. 29, 1995 when he seemingly tried to save his wife, Donnah, from being bludgeoned to death in their home by Roger Harrington, a man with a history of mental illness, whom Winger shot and killed. Four years later, DeAnn Schultz, Donnah's best friend, revealed to police that she and Mark Winger had been having an affair and that he had talked about killing his wife. Polaroid pictures revealing the position of the victims' bodies at the scene of the killings showed that Winger's account of the events lacked credibility. Seven years after the deaths of Donnah Winger and Roger Harrington, Mark Winger was tried and found guilty of murder. He was sentenced to life in prison. Segments include: "Shattered"; "A Hero's Tale"; "Dark Secret"; "Changing Tide"; "Hero Or Villain?" (C: Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Hal Gessner - P: Gail Zimmerman, Doug Longhini, Ian Paisley)
- 01/24/03      PREEMPTION
- 01/29/03      "Reasonable Doubt"- in September 1999, Brian Eftenoff of Phoenix, Az. Was convicted of murdering his wife, Judi. It was alleged that Eftenoff forced more than a gram of cocaine down his wife's throat causing her to die of a cocaine-induced stroke. After a re-examination of the case, 48 HOURS presented the trial evidence to a panel of four forensic experts -- Dr. Lee Hearn, chief toxicologist for Miami-Dade County, Fla.; Dr. Edward Briglia, chief toxicologist for Suffolk County, N.Y.; Dr. Charles Wetli, Suffolk County chief medical examiner; and Dr. Don Reay, former chief medical examiner in Seattle -- not one of whom think that Judi Eftenoff was a murder victim, but concur in the belief that her death was due to a self-administered cocaine overdose. Segments include: "A Call For Help"; "Fatal Attraction?"; "Trying The Theory"; "Test Of Character"; "Reasonable Doubt?" (C: Erin
